

House Resolution No. 1888

Whereas, as the 2002-2003 school year draws to a close, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to applaud the career achievements of those individuals who are retiring from the field of education; and

Whereas, the Macon County R-I School District is losing a valuable member of its faculty on May 23, 2003, with the retirement of Marilyn Hartung who has devoted three decades of her life to the education of this state's young citizens through tireless endeavors as a librarian; and

Whereas, Marilyn Hartung has worked for twenty-one years at Macon County R-I, where she is held in high esteem as an educator who demonstrates considerable competence in fulfilling her responsibilities to students seeking to broaden their intellectual horizon through the wonderful world of reading; and

Whereas, previously a librarian at Bevier C-4 for nine years, Marilyn Hartung has derived immense pleasure by educating teachers and students on how to succeed in developing their research skills while using various library resources and reference materials; and

Whereas, Marilyn Hartung has supported her profession as a member of the Missouri National Education Association, the Missouri Association of School Librarians, and the Macon Community Teachers Association and

Whereas, a recipient of the Fulbright Memorial Scholarship to study schools in Japan, Marilyn Hartung has also enjoyed recognition as a grant writer for the elementary media center; and

Whereas, Marilyn Hartung, who is a member of P.E.O. and the Bevier Black Diamond Preservation Organization, had been blessed with the love and support of a wonderful family whose members include her husband, J.P. Hartung; one son and daughter-in-law, Dr. Jason Garvin and Jennifer Garvin; one daughter, Stephanie Garvin; and one grandchild, Benjamin George Garvin:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join the Macon County R-I School District in expressing appreciation for the unparalleled service that Marilyn Hartung has rendered to Missouri's children and in wishing her the long, fruitful, and enjoyable retirement that she so justly deserves; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Marilyn Hartung, as a measure of our esteem for her.
